

SERVICE PROVISION

CORPORATE MEMBERS

Corporate Membership

Medilink aims to help our members become more innovative, competitive and profitable. Corporate Membership gives you access to our comprehensive industry knowledge, expertise and business support services.

A Customer Relationship Manager will get to understand your business needs and seek to translate these into opportunities. Being a part of our network enables us to provide you with industry knowledge and expertise, connect you to other members at events or facilitated introductions (mutually agreed), and through wider opportunities to keep you engaged with the sector.

Corporate Membership is available to:

Life Science businesses that are based within one of the Medilink regions*: North West, Yorkshire and Humber, West Midlands and East Midlands, South West and North East. Examples include:

- Medical device/technology (including IT and software), pharmaceutical, medical biotechnology companies and associated supply chain companies
- Suppliers of products and services to the sector, for example: R&D, CRO, designers, manufacturers, sub-contractors, regulatory specialists and distributors
- Life science business divisions (or units) of companies

* If you are outside these regions, please contact your nearest Medilink office to discuss wider options

Corporate Members will receive the following:

- A dedicated Client Relationship Manager (CRM) who will get to know your business needs and seek to translate these into appropriate opportunities
- Access to an extensive Life Science network of business, clinical and academic professionals
- Representation and lobbying for the Life Science industry at government level
- Access to Life Science business to business (B2B) network groups
- Medilink News publications, with opportunities to contribute news stories
- Medilink e-bulletins
- UK Life Sciences magazine (bi-annually)
- Company profile on the four Medilink websites (25 words) and company name and address on MedilinkUK.com
- Discount on Medilink products and services (where applicable)
- Reduced rates at Medilink and partner events (where applicable)
- Use of the Medilink Member logo
- Membership certificate
